

I would think an agency like the FCC that is so concerned with protecting our homes and our children from "obscene" speech on the radio and TV would applaud New Jersey's efforts to also protect our homes from completely uninvited intrusions into our quality time at home with our children. LEAVE NEW JERSEY'S "DO NOT CALL" LAW ALONE!